THE FAMILY OF LYMAN F. TALLMAN

June D. Brown, Stafford, Texas

5. Jonathan H. Tallman was born January 1844 in Wyoming County, New York, and was about four years old when his family moved westward to Washtenaw County, Michigan. Shortly after the outbreak of the Civil War, he enlisted on 28 February 1862 at Manchester in the Union Forces as a private in the First Regiment of the Michigan Infantry and along with many other Washtenaw County young men was assigned to Company F. He was one month past his 18th birthday. He was pronounced fit for duty by the examining surgeon and described as having brown eyes, brown hair, a light complexion and was five feet four inches tall. Jonathan signed his volunteer enlistment form, and it is accompanied by a signed statement from his mother [Military File of Jonathan Tallman, National Archives, Washington, DC].

Jonathan was at Ft. Monroe, Virginia, in April through June 1862 and he was next found on a muster roll of a U.S. General Hospital in Annapolis Junction, Maryland. He had been a patient there for 10½ months when found to be unfit for active service in June 1863. He worked in the Invalid Corps at the hospital through October. His disability was described as "diarrhea and constant pain in left side."

Although there is nothing to indicate when or where Jonathan was discharged from the Army, he was back in Michigan and living in Waterloo, Jackson County, in 1866, when he and his uncle, Friend D. Maxon, witnessed a document on behalf of his sister, Persis A. (Tallman) LeBaron when she applied for a pension based on her deceased husband's Civil war service [PF LeBaron].

Sometime about 1868, Jonathan and his younger brother, Harlan, only about fourteen years of age at the time, left Michigan and headed west, joining their brother John at his ranch in Parker, Douglas County, Colorado. Having survived the atrocities of the Civil War, his destiny did not allow him to escape further violence, and tragically, he was killed and scalped by Indians in the spring of 1870, never having married or sired children.

6. Jane Tallman was born 26 September 1846 in Wyoming County, New York. While still just a baby her family moved her across country, settling in Sharon, Washtenaw County, Michigan, where she grew up and married on 4 April 1878 Michael Luttenbacher [LDS IGI]. The Luttenbachers do not appear on the 1880 census for Michigan although Jane was still a resident of the area in 1883 when she was mentioned as an heir of Lyman Tallman on the 1883 sale of the family farm. Michael was not mentioned, so was most likely deceased by that time. Jane went west to Colorado, joining her brother John. She is enumerated on the 1885 Colorado State Census in John's household in Douglas County.

Jane (called Jennie on the marriage record) married Hiram S. Goodwin 15 November 1885 in Elizabeth, Elbert County, Colorado [Colorado Vital Records]. Hiram was born 20 April 1842 in New Hampshire. Sometime in 1892 Jane and Hiram pulled up stakes and moved to Laredo, Webb County, Texas, where they lived the remainder of their lives. Hiram worked as a conductor on a passenger train. Their address, as given on the 1910 census, was 338 McClellan Street [NA Series T624, Roll 1599, Vol. 145, Ed 143, Sh 344, Ln 91] and the 1920 census listed their address in Laredo as 1102 Guadalope Street [NA Series T625, Roll 1856, Vol. 169, Ed 171, Sh 10, Ln 79].

Hiram died there on 15 January 1920 and is buried in Elks Cemetery [cemetery stone]. Jane, still living on Guadalope Street at the time of her death, died 13 June 1929 at 9:10 pm of "acute cardiac insufficiency." She is buried there in Elks Cemetery [Texas Vital records] although there is no stone to mark her grave.

Children of Hiram S. and Jane (Tallman) Goodwin:

i. Thomas Goodwin, b. Aug. 1886, Colorado, marr. Teresa C. (..?..)

ii. Susie Goodwin, b. Apr. 1888, Colorado, marr. H.M. Rosenden

7. Harriet Tallman, born September 1850, was the first of Lyman and Polly's children to be born in Washtenaw County, Michigan. She married in 1880 Charles Jenks who was born March 1851 in Michigan. His parents were from Massachusetts. Charles and Harriet lived in Lima Township and never had any children [NA Series T623, Roll 746, pg. 108]. Harriet's mother Polly and her brother James were living with them when Polly died in 1904.

8 Olive Tallman was born May 1853 in Washtenaw County, Michigan. She married there Simon Winslow 30 May 1885 [LDS IGI]. Simon was born September 1848 in Michigan. His parents came to Michigan from New York. The 1900 census showed Olive's brother James L. Tallman living with them in their Lima Township home. The Winslows lived only three households away from Charles and Harriet (Tallman) Jenks [NA Series T623, Roll 746, pg. 108].

Children of Simon and Olive (Tallman) Winslow:

i. Jennie Winslow, b. July 1885 in Lima, Washtenaw Co., MI

ii. Phila Winslow, b. Nov. 1891 in Lima, Washtenaw Co., MI

9. Henry Arlan Tallman was born in Washtenaw County, Michigan in 1855. He was called Harlan by most who knew him. Sometime around 1868 when he was about fourteen years old, Harlan went west with his brother Jonathan to Colorado where their oldest brother John had a ranch. He was enumerated on the 1870 census in John's household in Bijou Basin, Douglas County, Colorado. He was fifteen years old [NA Series M593, Roll 94, pg. 220].

If they were seeking adventure, they found it. The Indians in the Colorado area were still very much a problem to the settlers, and sometimes whole families were massacred. Jonathan met with such a fate. After living through the unthinkable carnage of the bloodiest war ever on American soil, he rode right into the violence of an Indian ambush and was killed and scalped. Harlan was undoubtedly disheartened by his brother's violent end and left Colorado, returning home to Michigan.

After he returned to Michigan he married, about 1878 or 1879, Ida Florence Parsons, daughter of Alfred D. and Lavina (Gilbert) Parsons. Ida was born in Saline, Washtenaw County, on 27 February 1859. Ida's mother, Lavina, died on 25 January 1866. Her father Alfred married Harlan's sister Persis. Thus Persis was the stepmother of her sister-in-law and Alfred was Harlan's brother-in-law as well as his father-in-law.

Harlan and Ida purchased on 26 February 1883 a tract of land in Pittsfield from Wealthy E. Pope for $8,940 and the deed was recorded 1 March 1883. [WCRD, Lib. 102, pg. 595]. Also mentioned in the deed was a tract of land set aside for the public school, and a ten-acre lot previously sold to David Brown, son of Tallman Brown.

Page 110 of the 1884 Michigan State Census was dated 17 June, and listed Harlan, age 29 with wife Ida, 25, son Alfred, age 4, daughter Edith, age six-months, Harlan's brother James, age 27, and his mother Polly, age 62, living in Pittsfield. Harlan had scarcely gotten his farm operational when his health failed him. He died of a liver complaint on September 1884, leaving his wife Ida a widow at the young age of 25 and his two little children fatherless [WCVR, Vol. 1, pg. 298].

That Harlan's illness would lead to his death must have been quite unexpected, as he did not leave a will. Harlan's father-in-law Alfred D. Parsons was appointed administrator of the estate by the court. The probate papers reveal that Harlan had unpaid accounts with three businesses in the area: the Taylor Brothers of Chelsea, the Saline Manufacturing Company and the George E. Schairer Company who were manufacturers of carriages, wagons, sleighs and harnesses. Alfred Parsons sold 38 acres of Harlan's farm to Gottlieb Hertler and the remainder of the farm was sold to Ida's brother Frank E. Parsons [WCRD Lib. 104, p. 709].

Sometime about 1887 Ida married as her second husband {..?..} Briggs and moved to North Dakota. By the time of the 1900 census, Ida is again a widow. She is enumerated in Wells Township, Wells County, North Dakota, with her son Fred (Alfred) and daughter Edith from her first marriage and also her children Nellie, Albert and Leon Briggs, all born in North Dakota [NA Series T623, Roll 1234, Vol. 14, Ed 214, Sh 11, Ln 1]. Also living in Wells County, North Dakota, is Ida's father Alfred D. Parsons and his wife Persis (Tallman) [ibid, Ed 212, Sh 5, Ln 76]. On the 1910 census Ida is in Pioneer Township, Wells County, North Dakota, with four of her five children (Edith, Nellie, Albert, and Leon). Her son Alfred Tallman is not enumerated in her household. This census indicates that her marriage to Briggs was nine years in duration, so he must have died about 1897 [NA Series T624, Roll 1240, Vol. 23, Ed 209, Sh 3b, Ln 96].

Ida moved to Orange County, California, in 1923 where she remained until her death on 15 July 1928. [Orange Co. Vital records]. She was buried two days later in Santa Ana's Fairhaven Cemetery [cemetery stone].

Children of Harlan and Ida (Parsons) Tallman:

i. Alfred Laverne Tallman, b. 1880, Saline, Washtenaw Co., MI

ii. Edith Louise Tallman, b. 1883, Pittsfield, Washtenaw Co., MI

Children of Ida (Parsons) (Tallman) and (..?..) Briggs:
1. Nellie L Briggs, b. 1888, Wells Co., ND
ii Albert C. Briggs, b. 1890, Wells Co., ND
iii Leon L. Briggs, b. 1894, Wells Co., ND

10. James L. Tallman was the last child born to Lyman and Polly and was born in Washtenaw County, Michigan, 21 September 1857. He lived with his brother Harlan after Harlan married Ida Parsons, helping Harlan work his farm in Pittsfield. After Harlan's death in 1884, James and his mother Polly went to Lima where they lived with James' sister Harriet who was married to Charles Jenks. James was living with his sister Olive Winslow in 1900. Although James' death certificate says he was a widower, no record of a marriage is found, and there is no mention of a wife or marriage on any of the censuses. The death certificate also says he was living on Washington Street in Chelsea. James died 14 October 1946 and was buried in the Oak Grove Cemetery in Chelsea [WCVR, #18].

OBITUARY OF EUGENE B. ABEL, 1890

DEATH OF EUGENE B. ABEL
HE PASSED AWAY YESTERDAY MORNING.

With deep sympathy our business community and the many personal friends learned that Eugene B. Abel of the firm of Bach & Abel, had departed this life yesterday morning, Nov. 30, at 11 o'clock, at his mother's residence in Auriesville, N.Y. It did not come unexpected as he was suffering from consumption. He was born in Glenn, Montgomery Co., N.Y., December 9, 1853. He graduated from our high school in the year 1868. In the year 1877 he became a member of the firm of Bach & Abel, taking the place of his brother, Peter Abel, deceased. He leaves a mother, Mrs. M. Abel of Auriesville, N.Y., two brothers, Philip of Glenn, N.Y., and George who is still at home, two sisters, Miss Anna, residing at home and Mrs. Maria Irish, of Skaneatles, N.Y. He was a member of Fraternity Lodge, No 262, F.& A. M., being their Senior Warden during the year 1888, Washtenaw Chapter, No. 6, R.A.M. and Ann Arbor Commandery, No. 18, K.T. He was a constant attendant of the Presbyterian church. He was of a pleasant, genial nature and had a quiet unobtrusive way that made him universally liked by all who had the pleasure of meeting him in business or socially. He will be missed in this community.

A LITTLE ABOUT THE FAMILIES OF COBBLESTONE FARM, ANN ARBOR: TICKNORS AND CAMPBELLS

Marcia McCrary, Ypsilanti, Michigan *

To prepare for this anniversary talk about the early owners of Cobblestone Farm, I dug into my files. I had a large file on the Lambies and Campbells. I am afraid I use the "toss the net" method of gathering information. This is slower at the time, but often has hidden benefits when obscure information is needed later.

My interest in the Ticknor and Campbell families began in 1991 when the Ypsilanti Historical Society published the 1890s diaries of William Lambie. The Lambie family lived around the corner from us on Clark Rd., almost at River Street, on the north edge of Ypsilanti. In his diary, Mr. Lambie mentions visiting his daughter, Belle Scotney, who lived on LeForge Rd. To get to her dairy farm, he had to pass our property. He talks about going to visit the Campbells in Ann Arbor on the Interurban, and his wife was a Campbell, the daughter of Robert Campbell and Ann Muir. One item that caught my attention was a reference to Guelph, Ontario. Several of the Campbells went to Guelph in 1898 to visit John Clark who was ill. John's wife was Elizabeth, another daughter of Robert Campbell and Ann Muir. Our fire truck is from Guelph, a further connection to the Campbells.

The Ticknors were a harder nut to crack, until I remembered I had a book that spoke to me in a used bookstore with a plaintive "Take me home." This was Gertrude Hiscock Nanry's Lest It Be Forgotten. She has a delightful chapter on the Stone School (Packard and Stone School Road). You can't talk about that school without mentioning the Ticknor name (you even get to throw in a few Campbells now and then).

So, on to what I have discovered.

First, the Ticknors:

As the Cobblestone Farm people know, Heman Ticknor (1792-1864) purchased the farm in Pittsfield Township in 1835 for his brother, Benajah (1778-1858) and his wife, Gesie Bostwick (1784-1862). This farm was located in Section 3 of Pittsfield Township. The parents of Benajah and Heman were Benajah Ticknor (1762-1805) and Bethiah Bingham (1764-1836). They came from Connecticut.

Buried at Forest Hill Cemetery in Ann Arbor, Block 14, Lot 5 are:
Luther Ticknor, son of Heman and Eliza, b. 10 Nov. 1830, d. 20 Dec. 1841, age 11.
Sophia B. Ticknor, daughter of Heman & Eliza, b. 5 Oct. 1821, d. 4 May 1841, age 19 yrs 7mo-5 days.

* This speech was given by GSWC President Marcia McCrary at Cobblestone Farm, June 27, 1999, in honor of the 25th Anniversary of both GSWC and the Cobblestone Farm Association.

Caroline Electa Ticknor, daughter of Heman & Eliza, b. 6 May 1832, d. 15 June 1852, age 20 yrs 1 mo 9 days
Abigail Eliza Ticknor, daughter of Heman & Eliza, b. Feb. 1825 d. 2 or 21 Mar. 1848, age 23.
Note: Heman and Eliza also had a daughter Abigail Elizabeth who died very early.
Binajah [sic] Ticknor, b. May 1788, d. 2 Sept. 1858, age 71.
Ann Martha Ticknor, daughter of Heman & Eliza, b. 5 Sept. 1825, d. 5 June 1855, age 26.
Josiah Cutler, father of Eliza, Revolutionary War Veteran, b. 1761, d. 24 June 1840, age 79.
Gesie Ticknor, wife of Benajah, b. 25 June 1784, d. Mar. 1862, age 78.
Heman Ticknor, brother of Benajah, b. 17 Nov. 1792, d. 20 Mar. 1864, age 72.
Eliza Ticknor, wife of Heman, b. 2 Mar. 1793, d. 7 July 1871, age 78.

The card for Block 14, Lot 5 at the cemetery notes that Sophia B., Caroline and Abi E. were "Removed from Pittsfield in 1886." Two other Cutlers are on the Forest Hill card:
Lucy C. and Chas W. Cutler-- "removed from Old Cem." They have no stone.

An interesting side note is the fact that Heman's wife, Eliza Cutler, (1793-1871) was the daughter of a Revolutionary War Veteran, Josiah Cutler, (1761-1840) and he is buried here.

Benajah and Gesie adopted three children. Two were Benajah's sister's children: Lois Ball Ticknor (who married Donald Judson Warner), and Frances Ball Ticknor (who married Roswell Chapman Curtis). Another child, Rhoda T, called an "orphan" in the family records, was also adopted and brought up by Benajah and Gesie. Rhoda married Walter Hine, and lived in Canfield, Ohio. Cobblestone Farm records show that Benajah and Gesie visited there frequently.

On the WWW, "Carole Cronin's Genealogy List," I found a listing for Robert Ball, his parents, and siblings. Robert Ball married Sophia Bingham Ticknor, the parents of Lois and Frances Ball. I have sent an email to Carole Cronin, but have not heard back yet.

Heman and Eliza had only one son that survived to raise descendants, and that was Giles.

Also at Forest Hill, in Block 59, Lot 9 are these relatives of Giles, the son of Heman and Eliza (including Giles himself):
Annie R. Ticknor, wife of Frank, b. 31 Oct. 1867, d. 1927.
Frank H. Ticknor, husband of Annie, son of Luther and Margaret, b. 12 Mar. 1867, d. 1942.
Donald J. Ticknor, husband of Mary, son of Frank and Annie, b. 24 Nov. 1893, d. 20 Jan. 1985.
Mary H. Ticknor, wife of Donald, b. 26 Jan. 1892, d. 30 Nov. 1972.
Ellen L. Ticknor, daughter of Luther and Marg, b. 20 Mar. 1875, died 17 Mar. 1884.
Frances H. Ticknor, daughter of Frank & Annie, b. 3 Aug. 1892, d. 25 July 1979.
(Other records call her Frances W.)
Louisa J. Douglas Ticknor, wife of Giles, mother of Luther, b. 20 May 1826 d. 24 Sept. 1900.
Luther Ticknor, husband of Margaret, b.12 Mar. 1846, d. 9 Feb. 1878, aged 31 yrs 10 mo 2 days.
Margaret Allerton Ticknor, wife of Luther, b. 12 May 1845, d. 17 Nov. 1900

The DAR list for this plot includes:

Luelle Ticknor , d. 12 April 1873 Pittsfield, MI, age 19 days
Giles W. Ticknor, b. 18 May 1818, d. 2 Aug. 1871.

In 1860, Gesie Ticknor, widow of Benajah, sold the farm to Horace Booth (now, that's really another story, which I'm not prepared to pursue at this time).

Next, the Campbells:

In 1881, William and Mary Aulls Campbell purchased the farm, which Robert Clair Campbell then inherited. William had earlier married Mary's sister, Sarah M. Aulls (1834 - 1859). They were the daughters of William Henry Aulls (1802-1871 and Lois Hoyt (1803 - 1878). The Aulls family also had their Revolutionary War Soldier, William Aulls (1748-1816) of the 6th Battalion, Pennsylvania Militia, serving with Capt. James Clark's Company. He was the grandfather of William Henry Aulls. Several years ago, I ran across a reference to the Aulls in a New England Historical and Genealogical Register from January of 1960, which I think I purchased at one of our "garage sales." Only the fact of a Washtenaw County connection caught my eye, but I did not fit them into the larger pattern until I was working on this speech!

William's parents were Robert Campbell (1802-1888) and Ann Muir (1804 -). It was their daughter who married William Lambie, and another daughter who went to Guelph as John Clark's wife. A Lambie daughter married Azro Fletcher, a descendent of the same Fletcher family, which Nancy Krohn and I share.

Note on the (Pittsfield) maps the names in 1895: Section 3 shows William Campbell, with F. Ticknor on the west side of Stone School Rd. Also in Sections 4 and 9, Fred Hutzel and Mrs. L.J. Ticknor are given. In Section 15, George Read, Sections 10, 11 and 15, Andrew Campbell (son of Robert Campbell and Ann Muir and brother to all three (Mary C. Lambie, William -husband to 2 Aulls girls, and Gabriel Campbell).

In 1915, even more interesting names appear: Section 3, Wm. Campbell; Section 9, Frank H. Ticknor, Ed Hutzel; Section 10, RC Campbell, George Read, A. Campbell; Section 11, A. Campbell; Section 15, George Read; Section 21 and 22, Robert Campbell; Section 35, Wm. Campbell.

Modern descendants of this family that I personally know are Peter B. Fletcher, Fran Matevia and Jean Older Scott. Of course, our own Mary Campbell belongs here too. She is the daughter of Robert Clair Campbell, and along with her brother, George Read Campbell, grew up at the Cobblestone Farm.

When Dave Curtis talked to us about his Civil War Veteran, he spoke of Capt. Gabriel Campbell, who recruited Dave's great-great-grandfather for the 17th Michigan Infantry.

Modern relations of the Ticknor family include a GSWC member, Marcia Fritts Ticknor whose husband Carl is the son of Donald Ticknor, Jr.

Thank you all for helping us celebrate our 25th Anniversary in such a delightful fashion.
